

25TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE INFO

Knoxville Diocesan Council of Catholic Women Convention

Mission is KEY To Ministry

Doubletree Hotel, Chattanooga, Tennessee
April 10 - 12, 2014
Contact: kdccwconvention@gmail.com

April 10 — Opening Mass at the Basilica with Bishop Richard F. Stika: 5:00 pm

SPEAKERS

Susan Conroy — Keynote Speaker

April 10th & 11th

Thursday Banquet: 7:00 pm

Friday Workshop: 10:30 am

Author, Public Speaker, Television Host and Personal Friend of Mother Teresa.

Mary Jo Peyton

April 11

Friday: 11:30 am

“Reviving the Church in Eastern Russia”

Mary Jo is an award winning educator.

Mary Mother of God
Mission Society
Reviving the Roman Catholic Church in Eastern Russia

Gigi Krauser

April 11

Friday: Luncheon Visit – 1:15 pm

“Cross Catholic Outreach”

Gigi is a Director in the Church, School and Community Development Department.

Jim Bello

April 11

Friday Workshop: 1:45 pm

“Mission or Miss”

Jim is a member of the Basilica of Sts Peter and Paul, an author and public speaker who is employed in the private sector.

Anita Gouge and Lenore Pacitti

April 11

Friday Workshop: 2:45 pm

“Living the Gospel of Joy — the Way to Confidence and Love”

Mother and Daughter from Knoxville, Tennessee

Both are involved in areas of religious education in the Knoxville Area; Anita is a Secular Carmelite and Lenore a Religion Teacher at St. John Neumann.

Father David Carter, JCL

April 12

Saturday at the Basilica: 10:00 a.m.

Fr. Carter is the administrator at the Basilica of Sts Peter and Paul and will lead us on a spiritual meditation with Eucharistic Adoration, followed by Celebration of the Eucharist at Holy Mass. Father Carter brings a special joy, enthusiasm and reverence to his ministry.