

The National Council of Catholic Women unites all Catholic women in the United States--and we need every Catholic woman to join us and be counted—because together we can do so much more!

Some of the programs through which NCCW unites American Catholic women and gives a national voice to our values and priorities:

LIFE! Proclaiming the Church teachings on the dignity of every human life, from conception to natural death through prayer, education, legislative advocacy, and support of local facilities.

Helping Children Read for Fun and Future: Providing books to local schools, libraries and organizations which support children.

Day of Fasting and Prayer to End Hunger: Annual day to raise awareness of local and worldwide hunger issues through communal prayer.

Domestic Violence: "Women Healing the Wounds" Fighting the abuse through a national First Saturday prayer program, local support of victims and shelters as well as advocacy for policy changes.

Human Trafficking: Shedding light and offering hope to victims of sexual exploitation and involuntary labor practices.

MOMS Mothers' Outreach to Mothers: A mentoring and support program for women who choose life, done in partnership with a local agency.

CASE Children and a Safe Environment: Educating communities and advocating for a safe, toxic free environment for children in our country.
